ADDENDUM TO FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT, PRIVACY ACT of 1974 REQUEST

Less than 24 hours ago I made a FOIA request to the FBI with 38 requests for documents. Please accept this addendum of additional FOIA requests starting with numeral 39- 54, to be combined as one FOIA complaint. Again, I impress upon you the need for expedited processing of this FOIA request to prevent irreparable harm, blindness and death, and hope that you will promptly provide this information. I have enclosed a Certification of Identity with a signed release to send copies of these documents to both myself and the W.D. of Arkansas, U S District Court Judge, James R. Marschewski. Although you may have a right to exemption to redact or refuse documents to me, I would hope you have no interest in concealing evidence of my innocence to the Honorable Judge, James Marschewski for a pending civil or criminal matter. Since three, (3) of our family members have already died an undue death due to authorities concealing this information, I request that you fully comply with these requests by forwarding these documents to Judge, James R. Marschewski. His address is stated below: Thanking you in advance.

Honorable Judge, James R. Marschewski
U S District Court
P.O. Box 1547
